

MONTEREY HOTEL—CHIEF SEATTLE CLUB

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

THE SENECA GROUP

The Chief Seattle Club—a spiritual gathering place and provider of crucial services for indigent and homeless American Indians—has a beautiful new home in the renovated Monterey Hotel.

The heart and soul of the new Club quarters is a circular gathering space providing a sacred space to nurture, affirm, and renew the spirit of urban Native Peoples. Facilities include a kitchen and dining room, showers, a computer lab, an arts and crafts room, a clinic, and social spaces.

Jones & Jones led the restoration of the historic Monterey Hotel, implementing leading-edge green design and construction practices. The Chief Seattle Club occupies the lower floors, while the Monterey Lofts—eleven market-rate rental units—occupy the upper floors.

The project provides a place of dignity to urban Native Americans while helping to fuel the revitalization of a neighborhood.

FACTS

- LEED™ Silver Certification
- Solar water heating
- Rainwater harvesting
- Salvaged, recycled, and rapidly renewable building materials

BENEFITS

- Dignity for Urban Indians
- Model of Green Design for Historic Renovation

JONES  JONES

ARCHITECTS
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS
PLANNERS